

Grange Court

Wiltshire | Residential

About this home

Grange Court is a residential service for people with learning disabilities, autism spectrum conditions and complex needs including behaviours that may challenge.

The service has a friendly and family orientated approach which creates a warm and welcoming environment. Individuals are supported to create person centred plans that promote increased choice, control over their lives and independence skills. People will be supported in taking part in meaningful activities that enrich their lives and build on existing skills as well as develop new ones.

Who we support

- Young Adults
- Autism Spectrum Conditions
- Behaviours that may challenge
- Complex needs
- Learning Disabilities

Facilities

- En-Suite
- Self Contained Flats
- Wifi for tenants

What we offer

Set in the rural village of Hilperton, the service has 3 self-contained flats and 2 bedrooms with en-suites as well a large garden that people can socialise in if they wish.

The location of the service is ideal, with local amenities such as the shopping centre, restaurants, leisure centre and parks close by. Additionally the bus stop is a short walk from the service so individuals can easily go in to town when they want.

Lifestyle

At Grange Court, people are supported to lead active lives and take part in a variety of activities that build on social and communication skills. Activities that people can take part in include swimming, gardening, singing classes, discos, visiting the cinema and the local zoo.

With great links to the community in Wiltshire, individuals can visit the various local amenities including trips to local restaurants.

In addition to leisure activities, people are supported in learning valuable life skills in order to increase their independence, such as meal preparation and domestic skills.
