

Japan Crafts

What you will need:

- Large piece of paper
- Black, pink and white paint
- Bubble wrap

Method:

1. To start, simply paint a bare tree with the black paint on your paper.
2. Paint the bubble wrap sporadically with pink paint.
3. Press down the painted side firmly on the paper.
4. Remove the bubble wrap and repeat all over your tree.
5. Take another piece of bubble wrap and paint white.
6. Press down on the tree to add dimension to the colours of the blossom.
7. Take bubble wrap away and leave to dry.

Miniature Zen Garden Sensory Craft

What you will need:

- A small box
- Sand
- Pebbles
- A fork
- Small plants and other decorations

Method:

1. Fill the box halfway to the rim with sand.
2. Use your fork to draw a pattern in the sand.
3. Arrange your pebbles and plants to your liking.

Dip hands in, feel the different textures!

DIY Japanese Fan

Watch the video here.

What you will need:

- 10 craft sticks (ice lolly sticks work)
- Map pin
- Protractor
- Pencil
- Scissors

Method:

1. Lay the sticks out.
2. Puncture a hole in each using the pin.
3. Lay the sticks on top of each other aligning the holes.
4. Thread the pin through all the holes.
5. Twist the end of the pin around to close the holes.
6. Draw an arc with the protractor on some paper.
7. Cut out the arc.
8. Position the sticks evenly over the rest of the paper with the joining point at the bottom of the cut out arc.
9. Trace around the sticks.
10. Coat one side of each stick with glue.
11. Glue sticks within the lines you drew.
12. Cut out the excess paper between the sticks.
13. Glue the edges over and decorate how you wish. You can even cut out a decorative piece of paper the same way and stick on top of the fan. See video for more here.
