What makes this home unique:

We are based in and around an old Windmill built in 1862, our games and communal area is on the first floor inside the old Mill where we hold pool tournaments, bingo, host parties and have quiz nights – things can get quite competitive! On a Sunday each week we all cook together and everyone has a communal meal. We also love a holiday at Sail Close and go to Butlins once and year as well as other exciting places such as Disneyland Paris!

Location:

Based in the small village of Gayton, seven miles from King's Lynn, the home itself has a strong community atmosphere.

Opposite the home is a friendly pub, where people we support like to go to enjoy a tasty pub meal. There's a local butcher, post office and shop in walking distance, plus various takeaways.

People we support like to play ball games in the large playing field close by or enjoy a walk in the local park. Keen churchgoers attend the beautiful village church of St Nicholas.

Local bus services run to King's Lynn, where you'll find different shops, restaurants, a museum, the Majestic Cinema and the Corn Exchange, which puts on regular shows and events. We're also a 30-minute drive from the coastal town of Hunstanton, where we often spend summer days together.
