What makes this home unique

Dyke Road has a sense of belonging and family like atmosphere. The people living here are a close-knit community where every individual is valued, encouraged and supported to live life in a way that is meaningful to them. It has a warm, welcoming and therapeutic environment for young adults with complex needs, where independence, choice and personal growth are at the heart of everything. Each person's individuality is celebrated, taking the time to understand their interests, aspirations and strengths, and tailoring support to help them achieve their goals.

From enjoying meals together, exploring the local community, visiting the beach, and attending events, we encourage residents to be actively involved in choosing how they spend their time. Dyke Road has a simple philosophy: every person deserves the opportunity to live a fulfilling life, make their own choices and be supported to thrive in a place they are proud to call home.
