What makes this home unique

This supported living home in Wisbech offers a friendly, homely environment where people can enjoy spending time together. Sunday meals are a much-loved part of the week, giving everyone the chance to share a roast dinner or another favourite dish in a relaxed setting. These moments help bring people together, support friendships and create a comforting routine that many look forward to.

Support is shaped around each person, with the team encouraging choice, confidence and independence in daily life. Whether someone is developing new skills, taking part in activities they enjoy or building their own routine, the focus is always on what matters most to them. With a caring team and a positive atmosphere, people are supported to feel settled, included and able to keep moving forward.
