What makes this home unique:

Ty Dol has a warm, friendly and relaxed feel, where everyone is supported to feel at home and included. Although it is registered as a residential home, support is shaped around a supported living approach.

Each person is encouraged to build their independence and play an active role in choosing the support they want and receive. People enjoy a wide range of activities, both individually and together. Group adventures have included visiting waterfalls across South Wales and walking routes such as Pen y Fan and Cadair Idris.

The home also enjoys celebrating special occasions throughout the year, including St David's Day and Halloween.

Location:

Ty Dol is based in Gorseinon, within easy reach of local shops, cafés, a library and a variety of supermarkets. A GP surgery and leisure centre are also within walking distance, offering convenient access to healthcare services, swimming, fitness classes and indoor sports.

Nearby Parc y Werin provides open green space for walks, as well as bowling greens and a football pitch. Gorseinon has good bus links, making it easy to visit Swansea city centre for shopping, museums, galleries and entertainment.

We celebrate individuality, nurture confidence and foster supportive environments where everyone can thrive. We are also deeply proud of our extraordinary teams. From the home:

We asked a person supported what they loved about living here, they said:

“Safe home, friends, family, days out, fun, my own flat, activities, relaxing and busy.”

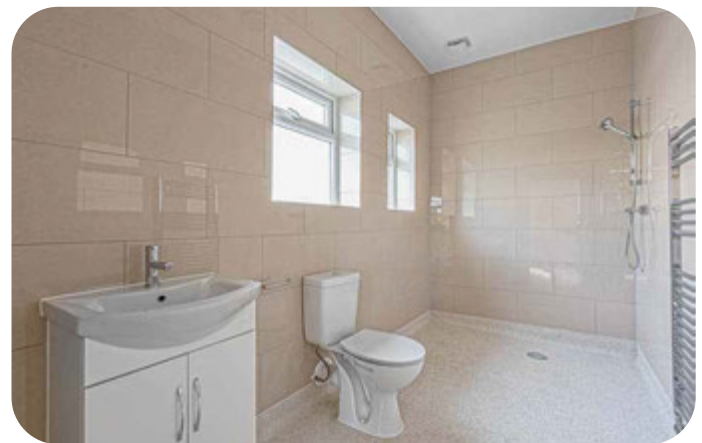

“What matters most to me is that every person we support feels happy, lives life in a way that is right for them and is supported to achieve their goals. I am committed to making Ty Dol a welcoming place where everyone can feel at home and thrive.”
