What makes this home unique:

The people living at our supported living home in Twickenham enjoy a variety of activities that encourage social interactions, independence and positive wellbeing. Regular outings include a local disco every other Friday and pub visits on Mondays, giving the people we support opportunities to socialise, build confidence and enjoy each other's company. Throughout the year, trips to the zoo and other nearby attractions are an exciting and popular activity for everyone.

In the summer months, gardening is a popular activity, especially growing vegetables such as potatoes and carrots. This helps promote teamwork, physical activity and practical life skills in a fun and meaningful way.

Location:

Twickenham is a lovely place to live, with plenty to enjoy close by. The home is near Twickenham Stadium, where people can experience the buzz of major sporting events, or quieter spots such as Kneller Gardens, a peaceful area for gentle walks and feeding the ducks. There are lots of opportunities to enjoy cinema trips, meals out and shopping.

With London Waterloo just 15 minutes away by train, it's easy to plan fun days out in central London too. This welcoming location offers a great balance of relaxation, independence and enjoyable experiences, helping those we support to make the most of each day, feel connected and retain autonomy.
